Trenna Parsons, Coalition Chair, called the meeting to order and thanked everyone for attending.

Trenna gave an overview of what the Coalition had been up to and the prior meetings that had been held involving the Youth to Youth Task Force. This committee renamed the “Better Way Committee,” met in Carrollton High School on February 20th and is being supervised by John Miller, a counselor for the high school. The next meeting for the group will be March 24th at 2:30 at the high school in the athletic office conference room.

Also discussed by Trenna Parsons and Jodi Salvo was the Resiliency Grant applied for by various members of the ADC. Kristen Petrilla applied for Carrollton and Malvern (Brown Local Schools) and it was reported that PFCS (per Jodi Salvo) applied for the grant for Conotton Valley Schools. Hopefully, by mid- April word will reach us if these grants are received.

With March being Problem Gambling Awareness Month per Governor Kasich, we discussed our questionnaire ballots for the community, as well as everything being in place with KNOW!; Teaching Moments and Five Minutes for Life. We discussed placing an article in the Free Press Standard. The committee was very receptive to getting the ADC website put on the school website somewhere. We also discussed the “START TALKING” campaign.

Nothing new was announced on the underage update per Rachel Rinkes. She did, however, make the committee aware of a new painkiller that is about to hit the market called Zohydro. Everyone made a note of this new drug, especially those of us in prevention.

We discussed the missing people from our panel that had been missing for awhile and brought up how to get them back. It was mentioned to write them a “How are You... We Miss You Letter,” as well as a phone call inviting them to our next ADC meeting Next ADC Meeting was set for Tuesday, April 1, 2014 at 12:00 p.m. at the Municipal Court.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:20 by Trenna Parsons, Chairman
